CASE NO. CR-09-0110-SI

DEFENDANT LAI-JUH CHEN'S UNOPPOSED APPLICATION AND ~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER FOR TEMPORARY
TRAVEL OUTSIDE THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Trial Date: October 31, 2011

23
24 Defendant Lai-Juh Chen hereby requests that this Court permit him to travel briefly outside of 25 the Northern District of California. This request is based on the following:

26 1. Dr. Chen seeks to travel to New York City, New York from January 11, 2011 until
27 January 13, 2011 to participate in the Sixth Annual Clean Technology & Renewables Conference
28 which will take place on January 12, 2011. Dr. Chen will travel by air on United Airlines Flight 10

1 leaving San Francisco on January 11, 2011 at 10:37 a.m. and returning January 13, 2011 at 5:25 p.m.
2 on United Airlines Flight 863. While in New York, Dr. Chen will stay at the Staybridge Suites Times
3 Square Hotel located at 340 West 40th Street, New York, New York 10018. Upon the Court's granting
4 of this application, Dr. Chen will provide Pre-Trial Services and the United States Department of
5 Justice Attorneys, Heather Tewksbury and E. Kate Patchen, with a travel itinerary detailing the above-
6 mentioned. The United States does not object to this request, as explained more fully in paragraph 5.
7 As shown in paragraph 6, Pre-Trial Services does not object to this request.

8         2.       The Sixth Annual Clean Technology & Renewables Conference will provide industry
9 participants and investors with an unparalleled look at one of the fastest growing sectors—clean
10 technology and renewables. This annual conference is generally known as the first and largest investor
11 event in the sector. Furthermore, the conference is to connect industry experts, like Dr. Chen, to 12 explore business opportunities in the clean tech field. Thus, it is important that Dr. Chen be permitted
13 to attend the conference on behalf of AU Optronics. Dr. Chen and AU Optronics believe that 14 attendance at this conference is important for all senior executives of participating companies.

15         3.       Individuals that attend the Clean Technology & Renewables Conference will gain
16 insight from leading solar, wind, smart grid, energy storage, LED, biofuels, water, automotive
17 efficiency and other clean technology companies from across the global supply chain, meet senior
18 executives, and have the opportunity for one-on-one and group meetings. Attendees will learn about 19 unfolding technology advancements and cost improvements that will make these technologies
20 competitive with traditional energy sources.

21         4.       In order to facilitate his travel by air consistent with TSA regulations, Dr. Chen
22 requests that this Court direct the Clerk of Court to temporarily return his Taiwanese passport to make
23 the above referenced possible. Dr. Chen will return his passport to the custody of the Clerk
24 immediately upon his return to San Francisco on January 13, 2011 (subject only to the Clerk's 25 business hours).

26         5.       On December 30, 2010, the undersigned spoke with Department of Justice Attorney E.
27 Kate Patchen. Ms. Patchen informed the undersigned that the United States Attorney's Office has no
28 objection to Dr. Chen's temporary travel to New York.
